About the PB Arts Center

The future home of the PB Arts Center is the former Pacific Beach Library, a 1950s mid-century modern landmark located on the southeast corner of the PB Middle School campus. Designed to serve as the gateway to the growing PB Arts District, the Center will feature state-of-the-art music and art studios, a teaching kitchen, and flexible performance spaces that bring creativity to life. As a dedicated arts venue in Pacific Beach, it will connect residents, students, and visitors through hands-on programs, cultural events, and a shared passion for the arts.

We Need Your Support

By contributing to the PB Arts Center, you're helping transform a historic community building into a thriving hub for creativity, learning, and connection. Donations will fund essential renovations, equipment for studios and classrooms, and programs that make the arts accessible to all. Together, we can build a lasting space that inspires generations of artists and enriches the cultural spirit of Pacific Beach.
